The Five Cricketers of The Year

---

Jim Polonidis

Basically called upon as a second choice replacement for injured or unavailable bowlers, Jim seized his first eleven opportunity and was soon providing his captain with a willing, accurate and economical alternative. With Michael Harvey's support up at the stumps, Polla's 161 overs went for just on 2 runs per over and netted him 22 wickets at the excellent return of 15.7 runs each. He now shares esteemed company as this year's winner of our club's prestigious First Eleven bowling trophy. In addition, Polla confirmed his discipline and application with the bat. He was dismissed only twice in Luscombe Shield and his tally included match winning partnerships in two matches, including the semi-final.

Ian Denny

Not for the first time, Eggers has completed a splendid season for the club with the bat. From twelve times at the crease, Ian scored better than 25 on nine occasions including two centuries. His incredible consistency including vital innings in each of his teams finals appearances. His 573 runs at 47.8 testimony to the obvious - he is the best! In stark contrast, his medium pace bowling, for the very first time, did fail to make a significant impact on the opposition batting line-ups. This forced Ian to courageously explore other bowling options during many games, with more than half his 21 wickets coming from his wily leg spinners. It seems the majority of the great all rounder's future wickets will come off the shorter run.

Darren Nagle

Darren completed an injury riddled season with a spectacular performance in the finals. He bowled his heart and soul out for his team in both finals and then batted for an amazing 112 overs in the grand final to be our undisputed hero. Darren reached double figures on 8 occasions this year, including an unbeaten century in a cameo appearance in the Fourths. His 20 wickets at 21.8 is only a fair return for a bowler of his calibre, but it must be remembered that Spud has battled with his fitness all season. His capacity to find something extra when there is nothing else to give, is his hallmark. A once in a lifetime performance in the grand final is admirably compared to his every week performance for his team mates.

Michael Harvey

Picking up the pieces left behind on the retirement of Greg Meyers, Mick offered to take the challenge to add the task of wicketkeeper to his already crucial role as the club's leading batsman. It was a challenge that probably only a Mick Harvey could succeed at. His versatility in batting was always evident, alternating between opening and middle order as the occasion warranted. His keeping was first class, with no better example than his performance in the semi final where he top scored with 81 and then donned the gloves for the remaining 111 overs. He scored 406 runs at 31.2, highlighted by a season saving century against Buckley Park. Michael accounted for 30 victims behind the stumps (not counting the Craigieburn captain).

Greg Peters

Greg retires as our captain/coach with the most impressive record imaginable. Nine seasons at the helm, never failing to make the finals and five premierships is a sensational success rate. No doubt, Greg has been fortunate to have several superstars in his team over the years but his contribution as an innovative and ingenious captain should never be underestimated. His capacity to identify and tap into the talents of the many younger and largely untried players such as Polonidis, Gauci and Saddler is matched by his faith in, loyalty to and use of the medium tier players like Nicol, Capocchi and Wakeling. Performance wise, Greg's consistency and courage under pressure is reflected in 296 runs at 29.6 including seven scores of 20 or more.
